Matthew 7:21-23, 1 Timothy 1:18-19

The Bible is full of warnings: that the enemy is seeking to devour us, to pray without ceasing, and about the brevity of life. I want to warn you that it is possible to have a seared conscience. You can live in disobedience for so long that you no longer hear the voice of God. Paul warned Timothy that some had lost their good conscience, rejected their faith, and had suffered shipwreck. Did you know you could shipwreck your faith? How? You disregard your conscience to the point it doesn't work properly anymore. You have dulled your sense of right and wrong. You redesign God to fit who you are. Jesus did not die so that you could call Him, "Lord, Lord," and then live like the rest of the world. If you are in Christ, you will act like Christ. You will spurn this world. No one will have to wonder if you're a Christian, they'll see a difference in you. They'll see the love of Christ which comes from a pure heart, sincere faith, and a good conscience.

PRAY

I want to be sensitive to You and Your voice. Through the Holy Spirit, would You give me a tender heart that obeys when You speak?
