

MARCH 3

“GOD WILL NEVER CHANGE.
HE HAS ALWAYS EXISTED
AND HAS ALWAYS BEEN GOOD.”

READ

Ephesians 1:3-12

There was a time when God, in the unity of His nature as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, dwelt all alone. In the beginning, there was no heaven where His glory could be manifested. There was no Earth to engage His attention. There was no universe to be upheld by the Word of His power. There was nothing, and no one but God. God has no beginning and no end. He's always the same; He does not change. He's the same right now as He was 6,000 years ago, and 60 trillion years ago. He's been the same before time, and will be the same when time is done. He has been God from everlasting to everlasting. He was alone, which means He is self-contained, self-sufficient, in need of nothing, totally at peace with Himself. He didn't create us because He had a need to love us or needed fellowship. He had perfect, whole, harmonious fellowship with the Father, Son and Spirit. To create was a simple, sovereign act of His own will, caused by nothing outside of Himself; determined by nothing but His own good pleasure. And this same God, before the foundation of the world, chose us.

PRAY

God, I am in awe of You; how wonderful You are. You didn't need me, but You chose to create me and let me know You personally. How can it be that I am talking to the Creator of the Universe?

From April 13, 2003