

OCTOBER 3

“YOU’RE A BRAND NEW PERSON.
YOU OUGHT TO BE LIVING
A BRAND NEW LIFE.”

READ

Colossians 1: 13-14, Romans 8:1, 2 Corinthians 5:15-21

When the Lord forgives you, there ought to be a change in your life: the way you live, the way you think, the crowds you hang around with, your value system. People should know something has happened to you. You become a new creation. You’ve been liberated from the power of darkness, so you ought to act like a person of light. You can’t live the same way, because you now have the Spirit of a risen Jesus living in you. When Jesus landed on the shore, a demon possessed man came out of the tombs, naked, screaming and cutting himself. The disciples saw the man and then went into town. When they returned, they found that same man sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. He had an obvious encounter with the Lord. The lady caught in adultery was dragged to Jesus, weeping, with the crowd preparing to stone her. When Jesus challenged her accusers, they left and He said to her, “Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more.” He was saying, “I’ve touched you, I’ve helped you, I love you. When you get up, don’t live the way you used to live. Go and sin no more.”

PRAY

Thank You for doing something supernatural and miraculous in me through the power of Your Word. May I walk today in this dark world as a child of light.
